

Information obligation of the Contracting authority (stage: contract)

With regard to the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data ("GDPR"), we kindly inform you that:

Your personal data or the personal data of your representatives, employees, associates, agents and persons, identified in the Contract, as the Party's representative, contact person or person responsible for the performance of particular tasks under the Contract will be processed in accordance with Article 6(1)(b), (c) and (f) of the GDPR (in relation to the points listed below) to:

- conclude and perform the contract or purchase order, and will be stored for a period of 6 years from the time that the operations, purchase transactions and procurement procedure have been finally completed and the liabilities paid, settled or time-barred, as well as from the termination of any guarantees and warranties arising from the performance of the contract or purchase order,
- establish, assert or defend legal claims arising out of or in connection with the Contract will be kept for a period of 6 years after the Contract completion,
- produce statistics, summaries and analyses for own needs and then personal data will be stored for the period of 3 years from the last activity carried out on personal data.

Providing your personal data is voluntary, but not providing them will prevent the agreement or order from being performed.

The data of suppliers' representatives has been obtained directly from the suppliers they represent or from publicly available sources.

We transfer your personal data to entities with which we cooperate in order to use your products and services or products and services of suppliers which you represent, e.g. entities providing postal, courier, accounting, legal, IT services, as well as to Veolia Group companies.

Your personal data may be transferred to third countries (outside the European Economic Area), in particular in connection with Veolia's use of global IT solutions. The data may be transferred to third countries for which the European Commission has issued an adequacy decision. For third countries in respect of which such a decision has not been issued, the transfer of data may be carried out each time subject to one of the solutions aimed at ensuring an adequate level of data protection referred to in Chapter V of the GDPR. Information on the safeguards referred to in the preceding sentence can be obtained by contacting the Data Protection Officer.

Each of You and Your representatives has the right to:

- access his/her personal data,
- rectification, deletion or restriction of data processing,
- data portability,
- filing an objection,

In addition, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office in case you consider that the data processing infringes the provisions of the GDPR.
